Dear Mr. President:-

In consultation to-day with Mr. Hammond of the Pinkerton Detective Agency, I am informed that the expense of the investigation thus far in connection with the examination papers slightly exceeds $100.00. I immediately got in touch with Mr. Anglin of the Department of Education and informed him of this fact. He asked that, as the arrangements were made between yourself and the Minister of Education, you should be notified of this fact, and he will report directly to the Minister. In the meantime, until a decision can be arrived at, he has asked that the Agency continue their work.

I am sorry to trouble you with this, but Mr. Anglin thought you should be advised.

Very sincerely yours,

Joint Superintendent.

Dear Mr LeFan,

Many thanks for your letter. if the Pinkerton people think that they have a clue they should continue, though we should keep an eye on the expense. If Mr Anglin has told the minister of Education about it we are all right.

I have just received a letter from Miss Johnston saying that she has been paid for her furs, so you might hold the coat in readiness for Mr Ross when he sends for it, taking a receipt for it. Perhaps the best way would be for you to write Mr Ross saying that you are ready to deliver the coat to him.

I see that Mr Campbell has arrived. I hope that he is well Give him my kind remembrances.

With kind regards I am yours sincerely,

P.S. I am enclosing Miss Johnston's letter. Please keep it safely until I return. If you have a vacant position for a type-writer I could apply.
